

Scene Drawing and Carousel

Instructions

Read/listen to (scene target text). Draw the scene that is described and label what you think are the five most important parts.

Now, look at the drawings created by your classmates. As you walk around the classroom, answer the following questions:

1. What are the similarities that exist between your drawing and your classmates' drawing?
2. What are the differences that you note?