Museum Studies

Certificate in Museum Studies

Graduate students in architecture and interior architecture who are interested in museum and exhibit design can apply to this 28-credit certificate program based on courses offered at the Eugene campus. Information about the program is available in the Arts and Administration section of this catalog.