The University Counseling and Testing Center is a unit of the Division of Student Life that provides mental health services to currently enrolled UO students, training and supervision to graduate-level therapists, and testing services. A professional support and crisis line is available when the center is closed.

Counseling Center

541-346-3227

The Counseling Center provides brief individual therapy, support and therapy groups, and workshops to UO students. Issues commonly addressed include depression, anxiety, suicidal thoughts, relationship concerns, psychosis, mania, identity development, body image concerns, eating disorders, grief and loss, and sexual assault. Psychologists and counselors provide consultation to members of the university community and offer educational outreach to students and faculty and staff members on issues relevant to student mental health. Hours of operation are listed on the website (http://counseling.uoregon.edu).

The Collegiate Recovery Center provides support for recovering students in an effort to promote recovery and prevent relapse. More information is available on the website (http://recovery.uoregon.edu).

Testing Office

David Espinoza, Director
541-346-3230

The testing office schedules, coordinates, and administers required placement examinations, Credit by Examination programs, and proctored academic tests as well as national computer-based testing programs such as Graduate Record Examinations (GRE), Graduate Management Admissions Tests (GMAT), Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), Miller Analogies Test (MAT), and Praxis, California Basic Educational Skills Test (CBEST), and Oregon Educator Licensure Assessment (ORELA) teacher-certification tests. In addition to its computer-based testing program, the Testing Office organizes the on-campus administration of the paper-and-pencil American College Testing Assessment (ACT), Law School Admission Test (LSAT), Multistate Professional Responsibility Examination (MPRE), and the SAT (known previously as the Scholastic Aptitude Test, then the Scholastic Assessment Test). Students and community members taking online, distance-education courses are also able to have their examinations proctored at the Testing Office. The office also coordinates with the Accessible Education Center for extended-time academic examinations.

Registration materials and information are available on the website (http://testing.uoregon.edu), or by e-mailing a request to testing@uoregon.edu. The Testing Office is located in 270 University Health, Counseling, and Testing Center Building. Tests are administered by appointment. Hours of operation are listed on the website (http://testing.uoregon.edu).
