The Office of Veterans Affairs, a unit within the Office of the Registrar, helps eligible student veterans, reservists, and military dependents obtain educational benefits in compliance with the procedures and regulations of the United States Department of Veterans Affairs. The office provides basic information about educational benefits administered by both the United States and Oregon veterans affairs offices.

Eligible student veterans should contact the veterans coordinator by telephone, e-mail, or mail as soon as they are admitted to the university. The mailing address is Office of the Registrar, 5257 University of Oregon, Eugene, Oregon 97403-5257. The veterans coordinator is available 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Veterans Access, Choice, and Accountability Act of 2014

Section 702 of the Veterans Access, Choice, and Accountability Act of 2014 was codified in 38 U.S.C. 3679(c). In 2016, Congress passed Public Law 114-315, which modifies 38 U.S.C. 3679(c). This policy includes the provisions of 38 U.S.C. 3679(c), as amended:

The following individuals shall be charged the in-state rate, or otherwise considered a resident, for tuition and fees purposes:

- A veteran using educational assistance under either Chapter 30 (Montgomery G.I. Bill—Active Duty Program) or Chapter 33 (Post-9/11 GI Bill), of Title 38, United States Code, who lives in the state of Oregon while attending the University of Oregon (regardless of his or her formal state of residence) and enrolls at the University of Oregon within three years of discharge or release from a period of active duty service of 90 days or more.
- Anyone using transferred post-9/11 GI Bill benefits (38 U.S.C. § 3319) who lives in the state of Oregon while attending the University of Oregon (regardless of his or her formal state of residence) and enrolls at the University of Oregon within three years of the transferor’s discharge or release from a period of active duty service of 90 days or more.

- Anyone described above while he or she remains continuously enrolled (other than during regularly scheduled breaks between courses, semesters, or terms) at the University of Oregon. The person so described must have enrolled at the University of Oregon prior to the expiration of the three-year period following discharge or release as described above and must be using educational benefits under either Chapter 30 or Chapter 33 of Title 38, United States Code.
- Anyone using benefits under the Marine Gunnery Sergeant John David Fry Scholarship [38 U.S.C. § 3311(b)(9)] who lives in the state of Oregon while attending the University of Oregon (regardless of his or her formal state of residence).
- Anyone using transferred post-9/11 GI Bill benefits (38 U.S.C. § 3319) who lives in the state of Oregon while attending the University of Oregon (regardless of his or her formal state of residence) and the transferor is a member of the uniformed service who is serving on active duty.

The Yamada Language Center is the university’s center for language teaching and learning, with resources and facilities to support more than 25 world languages. The center is an active partner with the university's language and linguistics departments, providing training, equipment, and technology to more than 200 instructors and 4,000 students.

The center's classrooms are designed for language teaching, featuring state-of-the-art audio-visual technology and furniture that can be easily reconfigured for a variety of active teaching environments. In addition, the student center offers space for lectures, workshops, and conversation practice. A library of films and multilingual reading material in a variety of languages are also located there.

Among the center’s key student services are the Self-Study Language Program, Foreign Language Exchange, and an annual Foreign Languages and International Studies Day. The center is also one of the founding members of the UO Language Council, a campus group aimed at raising the profile and impact of language study.

As a research unit, the center develops web-based software that serves the campus and the worldwide language teaching community. Its Virtual Language Laboratory and ANVILL (A National Virtual Language Laboratory) applications are used by thousands of students daily.
