The Mills International Center, located in the Erb Memorial Union, is known on campus as "a meeting place for the world." More than 31,000 students and members of the faculty and community visit the center annually to study, attend international events, relax, or use the media resources—travel and adventure books and DVDs, international magazines, newspapers, cookbooks, CDs, and films. Groups from all over campus reserve the center for their activities, and more than 200 events were held at the center last year.
