Minor in Business Administration

All professions and organizations, public and private, operate according to business principles. Earning a minor in business administration prepares students to participate in organizational conversations and become leaders within their future professions. The minor in business administration is open to students from all majors other than business administration, accounting, and general social science with a concentration in applied economics, business, and society. Completing the minor requires 24 credits of course work, which can be completed in one academic year.

Students may declare a minor in business administration online at the college's website, where a checklist of requirements can be found. Advising assistance is available in the Office of Undergraduate Advising.

Twelve upper-division credits must be taken in the Lundquist College of Business. Upper-division business courses must be taken for letter grades. Students must earn a C– or better in all courses taken for a letter grade to fulfill minor requirements. When minor requirements have been completed and notification of application for a degree has been received from the Office of the Registrar, the student is cleared for the minor.

Business Administration Minor

All professions and organizations, public and private, operate according to business principles. Earning a minor in business administration prepares students to participate in organizational conversations and become leaders within their future professions. The minor in business administration is open to students from all majors other than business administration, accounting, and general social science with a concentration in applied economics, business, and society. Completing the minor requires 24 credits of course work, which can be completed in one academic year.

Students may declare a minor in business administration online at the college's website, where a checklist of requirements can be found. Advising assistance is available in the Office of Undergraduate Advising.

Twelve upper-division credits must be taken in the Lundquist College of Business. Upper-division business courses must be taken for letter grades. Students must earn a C– or better in all courses taken for a letter grade to fulfill minor requirements. When minor requirements have been completed and notification of application for a degree has been received from the Office of the Registrar, the student is cleared for the minor.

Code	Title	Credits
BA 101	Introduction to Business [1]	4
BA 215	Accounting: Language of Business Decisions [2]	4
BA 315	Economy, Industry, and Competitive Analysis	4
BA 316	Management: Creating Value through People	4
BA 317	Marketing: Creating Value for Customers	4
BA 318	Finance: Creating Value through Capital [3]	4
or FIN 316	Financial Management

1. Must be taken before the other required minor courses.
2. Must be taken before Finance: Creating Value through Capital (BA 318)
3. Financial Management (FIN 316) may be substituted by economics majors who have maintained a 3.00 GPA