The Duck Store comprises five departments: books, technology, art and school supplies, sportswear (UO-related apparel and memorabilia), and the Duck Store Café.

History

The Duck Store was established in 1920 as a cooperative and is now run as a nonprofit organization owned by UO students and members of the faculty and classified staff. Policy is decided by a board of directors composed of eight students, two faculty members, and one classified staff member. The directors are selected in annual elections by the membership.

General Services

The Duck Store offers no-charge check cashing for amounts up to $20, ATM machines, postage stamp sales and a mail drop, UPS package service, and fax service. The store also provides the university community with graduation regalia and announcements.

The bookstore offers course book rentals and e-books as well as traditional textbooks. University of Oregon students and members of the faculty and staff receive a discount off the publisher's list price of new textbooks and at least 32 percent off used books. Students may resell their books at any time. For the best prices and buy-back dates, visit uoduckstore.com/student (http://uoduckstore.com/student/). Dates are posted on the Duck Store website. Thousands of book award and school supply scholarships have been awarded since 2003. For more information on the awards program, visit the website.

Art and School Supplies

The art and school supplies department in the store basement is Oregon's largest art store south of Portland. As well as housing a wide variety of art and architecture materials, it offers everything you need in school and office supplies. Local artists frequent the Duck Store for its extensive selection of art supplies and the personal service from its knowledgeable staff.

Technology

The technology department provides computers, software, and technology solutions for the UO community. Low educational prices on hardware and software are available for UO students, faculty, and staff. The computer department also provides a Kodak instant-print kiosk and fax services.

Duck Store Café

The Duck Store Café gourmet coffee and espresso counter features specialty coffee drinks, food, and snacks.

Sportswear, Gifts, and Cards

The sportswear department carries the latest officially licensed UO sportswear, gifts, and Oregon memorabilia. Profits return to campus and support the discount on course materials, and help other campus units provide benefits for UO students and alumni. Visit the Duck Store main floor for a selection of distinctive gifts, greeting cards, and magazines, or visit the main website.

Knight Law Center

The Duck Store serves the John E. Jaqua Law Library with the Court Café, selling coffee, beverages, and food. Students can pick up law course packets and books and send faxes. Court Café hours may be found on the Duck Store website.

The Duck Store at the Rec

The Duck Store at the Student Recreation Center features a Shake Smart location selling protein drinks, acai bowls, and other food and beverages. Students using the Rec Center may purchase yoga mats, swimsuits, water bottles, protein bars, and other items needed in a gym environment. Hours may be found on the Duck Store website.

Other Locations

Duck Store locations may be found at Autzen Stadium and Valley River Center. During home football games, the Club Store is also open inside Autzen Stadium, and two retail locations are open during events at Matthew Knight Arena.

For the convenience of students, alumni, and friends of the university outside the Eugene area, the Duck Store sells university sportswear and insignia merchandise at the University of Oregon facility at the White Stag Block in Portland, the Washington Square Mall in Tigard, and the Clackamas Town Center in the Portland Metro area.
