The Clark Honors College provides curious and motivated students with a broad-based liberal arts education that combines challenging academic coursework with hands-on learning experiences, internships, research, and other opportunities that allow them to develop skills that will support their individual career goals. Our award-winning faculty and staff empower students and help them develop into critical thinkers, excellent communicators, and future leaders so they can help find solutions to some of the world's most urgent issues.

Clark Honors College is a community rich with diverse perspectives and opinions, reflected in the make-up of faculty, staff, and students, and the content of curriculum and programming. We offer small classes capped at 19 students. Our students learn from a curriculum taught primarily by core faculty who are dedicated to teaching excellence, pedagogical innovation, and student success. Our interdisciplinary curriculum emphasizes critical thinking, strong written and oral communication skills, collaboration, and problem-solving through coursework and special degree and course opportunities, and support for the research-informed pedagogy that teaches these skills.

Academic Requirements

Requirements in the honors college satisfy the core-education requirements that other University of Oregon students meet for graduation. Honors college faculty and professional advisors advise honors college students concerning these requirements and mentor them concerning their academic choices. Students retain full responsibility for understanding and shaping their study programs.

Depending on test scores, students may use advanced placement or international baccalaureate credits as well as transfer credits from other higher education institutions toward honors college outside course requirements, second-language requirements, applicable major requirements, cultural literacy requirements, or university electives. To earn a BS degree, students must complete one year of college-level mathematics or the equivalent. Advanced placement, international baccalaureate, and transfer credits may help fulfill either such a math requirement or the language requirement.

University and Major Requirements

Honors college requirements, which replace university core-education requirements, represent roughly one-third of a student's total four-year schedule. Before graduating, Clark Honors College students must also meet the requirements, listed elsewhere in this catalog, of their major department or professional school. They must maintain a 3.00 or better cumulative grade point average (GPA).

Clark Honors College students who have completed the CHC#core#education requirements (HC 101H, 221H, 231H, 241H, and 301H; Area of Inquiry approved courses outside the CHC in Arts and Letters, Social Science, and Science (one course in each area); an approved quantitative reasoning course; and 20 credits in upper division CHC Colloquia) have fulfilled the university's Area of Inquiry requirements. Should a student leave the CHC after successful completion of#all of#these requirements, the student will retain their clearance of the university's Area of Inquiry requirements.

1 The second-language requirement is waived if a department, program, or school requires 90 or more credits of course work for a major leading to a BS degree (see Majors, Degrees, and Contexts Waiving Second-Language Requirements list). No case exists in which Clark Honors College language requirements replace departmental language requirements.

2 Designated honors college colloquia carry a supplemental course number if they satisfy one of the below categories—, Honors College Global Perspectives Colloquium: [Topic] (HC 434H), HC US: Difference, Inequality, Agency Colloquium: [Topic] (HC 444H)—or any approved (http://catalog.uoregon.edu/archive/2023-2024/genedcourses/) UO courses may be used to satisfy the multicultural/cultural literacy requirement.

3 Course taken at least one term before intended graduation to formalize the thesis project.

4 Students may substitute four credits of independent thesis research (401, 403, 405, or other course numbers as applicable), taken within or outside the honors college, in place of an elective colloquium. Independent research credits may be taken P/NP

Writing

The honors college is committed to excellence in writing. The core curriculum integrates instruction and practice in fundamental rhetorical skills—writing, reading, speaking, and listening—with the subject matter of the courses. If they choose to leave the honors college, students who pass HC 101H with the minimum grade of C- or P have completed the university's Writing 121 requirement. Students who pass HC 221H with the minimum grade of C- or P have completed the university's Writing 122/23 requirement.

Four-Year Degree Plan

The degree plan shown is only an example of how students may complete their degrees in four years. There are alternative ways to navigate the CHC curriculum. Students should consult their advisor to determine the best path for them.The Robert D. Clark Honors College is not a major. Students who follow the honors college curriculum fulfill all of the University of Oregon's core education requirements. Honors college requirements must be taken for a letter grade, unless pass/no pass is the only option. In addition, only courses passed with grades of C– or better will fulfill honors college requirements.
