Chinese Minor

Learn Chinese language, culture, society, literature, and linguistics from historical and contemporary perspectives. Our classes encourage active participation and communication in a friendly and supportive environment. The Chinese minor combines language courses with culture, literature, and linguistics courses. Chinese is one of several minors taught within the Department of East Asian Languages and Literatures.

Minor in Chinese

The Chinese minor requires a minimum of six upper-division courses (24 graded credits), which must consist of at least three language courses, two courses in literature, linguistics, and/or culture, and a sixth course with a CHN or EALL subject code. At least three of the six courses must be taken in residence on the University of Oregon campus from the Department of East Asian Languages and Literatures.

Code	Title	Credits
Modern Chinese language—a minimum of three courses, at third-year level or higher, chosen from the following:
CHN 301	Third-Year Chinese I
CHN 302	Third-Year Chinese II
CHN 303	Third-Year Chinese III
CHN 411
CHN 412
CHN 413	Modern Chinese Texts: [Topic]
Culture, literature, film, linguistics—a minimum of two courses chosen from the following
CHN 305	History of Chinese Literature
CHN 306	History of Chinese Literature II, The Imperial Age
CHN 307	History of Chinese Literature
CHN 308	Literature of Modern Taiwan
CHN 480	Chinese Linguistics

Upper-division language courses must be taken at the University of Oregon or through an Oregon University System program in China. Lower-division courses must be passed with grades of C– or better or P; upper-division courses must be passed with grades of C– or better.