German Minor

The German minor correlates well with studies that have an international or European concentration. It is particularly useful for students of global studies, international business, European history, medieval studies, sociology, political science, journalism, linguistics, philosophy, art history, music history, other languages, theater, and related fields.

German Minor Requirements

The German minor correlates well with studies that have an international or European concentration. It is particularly useful for students of Global Studies, international business, European history, medieval studies, sociology, political science, journalism, linguistics, art history, music history, other languages, theater, and related fields.

Code	Title	Credits
Four upper-division German courses [1]		16
GER 201	Second-Year German I	4
GER 202	Second-Year German II	4
GER 203	Second-Year German III	4
Total Credits		28

[1] May include courses in language, literature, or culture. Two courses taught in English may be applied to the minor in German. Grades of at least C- or P (pass) must be earned in all courses used to satisfy requirements for the minor. One course may be taken pass/no pass. At least 12 credits must be taken in the UO Department of German and Scandinavian.

The following courses may not be used to satisfy minor requirements:

Code	Title	Credits
GER 199	Special Studies: [Topic]
GER 405	Reading and Conference: [Topic]
GER 406	Practicum: [Topic]
GER 408	Workshop: [Topic]
GER 470		