Educational Leadership (DEd)

Application and Admission

The department follows general university policy in its admission procedures. Students who transfer to the university from other institutions must meet UO entrance requirements. Information about admission to degree and licensure programs is available from the Program's and College of Education's websites, as well as from the Program's Academic Program Coordinator.

Program Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this program, students will be able to:

- Synthesize research literature to evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of educational programs, interventions, and policies.
- Evaluate educational outcomes through an equity lens, with a particular focus on disproportionality.
- Conduct original research related to a problem of practice using quantitative, qualitative, or mixed methods approaches.
- Articulate the leadership qualities that foster the improvement of educational institutions (e.g., classrooms, schools, school districts).
- Communicate clearly and professionally in writing and oral presentations.
