ADMINISTRATIVE EXPERIENCE

Business Fundamentals Coordinator, Lundquist College of Business, UO, June 2022-June 2024

I served as primary advocate for ten fundamental courses in the College by assisting with personnel needs, such as hiring, onboarding, evaluating, mentoring, resolving personnel concerns, and promoting a supportive climate, as well as our educational mission, through activities such as staffing courses, conducting curriculum reviews, and addressing student issues.

Director, PhD Program, Lundquist College of Business, UO, August 2017-August 2018

As director of the Lundquist PhD Program, I was responsible for all phases and aspects of the program, including strategic planning and coordination, recruiting, admissions, student services, budgeting, GE and scholarships, events management, and data collection and analysis. I worked with our program manager, departmental PhD coordinators, faculty, students, donors, and other constituencies to pursue program goals.

CONSULTING EXPERIENCE

Organization Development Consultant, GPA Consulting Group, Inc., 2001-2009

Taught 60-hour leadership and communication courses, facilitated 2-day teambuilding retreats, administered and interpreted employee surveys, and led customized seminars in leadership and ethics. Clients ranged from wood products to retail to banking. Served as guest facilitator and coach for the Oregon Leadership Institute, leading experiential L-groups and coaching back-home development projects.

Interim President, GPA Consulting Group, Inc., Eugene, OR, February 2005-February 2007

GPA Consulting Group provided comprehensive management, employee relations, leadership consulting services, and educational programs for public and private organizations. As president, I worked with the owners planning the company direction, spearheading marketing efforts, coordinating our seven associates, leading our community relations (e.g., Chamber of Commerce, Oregon Bankers Association), reviewing financials, setting agendas, and running staff meetings.
