

FOREIGN LANGUAGE & INTERNATIONAL STUDIES DAY

May 7, 2027

FLIS is Oregon's largest event devoted to international languages and cultures. We hope you will come participate in this day of enriching presentations. This year approximately 1,000 high school students will gather at the University of Oregon campus to discover and learn on Friday, MAY 7th.

The program offers over 65 language and culturally related presentations, workshops and hands-on activities. Your students will have many chances throughout the day to use their foreign language skills while they acquire new ones. The variety and range of presentations is truly impressive.

Please note: Registration is limited. Space is available on a first come, first served basis.
Questions? Contact us at flis@uoregon.edu.

We look forward to welcoming you to our campus on May 7th and providing your students with an incredible day.
