

The second floor of the Lillis Business Complex includes an atrium bridge, two hallways, and three wings: Anstett Hall, Peterson Hall, and the Chiles Center.

The atrium bridge has suite 240 (Braddock Tutoring), rooms 245-255 (including two classrooms and faculty offices), a stairway to other floors, and hallways to the East and West wings.

The East hallway has rooms 262-285 (including faculty offices, three classrooms, a lecture hall, and two study rooms), an accessible restroom, a stairway and elevator to other floors, and access to the East wing (also called Anstett Hall).

The East wing (also called Anstett Hall) has rooms 291-298D (including PhD student and faculty offices), a stairway to other floors, and doors to the outside.

The West hallway has rooms 211-232 (including three classrooms), an accessible restroom, a stairway and elevator to other floors, and access to the West wings (also called Peterson Hall and the Chiles Center).

The West wing (also called Peterson Hall) has rooms 201-208D (including the Office of Advising and Student Experience, Business Honors, and faculty offices), a stairway to other floors, and doors to the outside.

The far West wing (also called the Chiles Center) has rooms 222-229 (including a classroom and the Insights Research Lab) and a stairway to other floors.